

Transcript provided by Kim N. from Awake and Arise. Corrections and additions added by Micah in brackets.

Hey, good evening brothers and sisters. This is Micah from the II.

I have been really busy -- really fun having a new baby around, getting my family all organized. Exciting time. A lot of stuff has been happening in the world recently. I've been getting a lot of emails -- really good emails -- and people have been asking me, "What do you think is going to happen in the next conference? What do you think is going to happen in the future?" In this video, I'm going to do a little bit off the cuff -- a little different for me -- but guess what? What I believe is coming is no different than what I've been saying for years.

Okay. Take my paper Isaiah 1-14/2 Nephi 12-24 TL;DR. This is a summary. Now, I don't like to stick years to things, because the "years thing" gets people all screwy, and it's pure speculation. That's why I like to think of things on a macro level.

But back in 2018, based off of things that I had seen, I was telling my friends and family that a desolating sickness was on the horizon. And when President Nelson said that 2020 was going to be the hinge point, I said, "That confirms that 2020 will be when the sickness hits." My family and friends, you know, laughed like I was crazy. When the sickness hit, they didn't think I was so crazy anymore. And they're like, "Well geez man, where are you getting this from?" And it's like, "We need to read Isaiah a little more seriously if you don't believe this."

I started telling people this, then I started getting people saying, "Hey, well this is not a plague. This is not wiping everyone out. You think this is the desolating sickness?" Yes. Because the desolating sickness was designed for Ephraim. The desolating sickness was designed for a drunken Ephraim who was drunk on Gentile culture, drunk on the whore of Babylon, drunk from the Great and Abominable Church -- which its purpose was to get gain. Meaning, the sickness that made things desolate was an economic sickness. We learn about it, that it was a vexation only to understand the report. It wasn't wiping people out. It wasn't burying people in mounds. This was a sickness that made things desolate. It made cities desolate, and people were in the doors. Economically, it crushed people. It was a wake-up call. That's what this is, and it hit in 2020. This is the sickness -- this is it. This is not the plague. This is not one of the seven angel vial plagues, etc. that get poured out after. Those are designed to wipe people out, kill them, knock them off the planet. This is not that. But that isn't what this is. There is no angel blowing a horn in the desolating sickness.

The second thing that I said as soon as number one happened, I said, "Will you watch? The scourge is going to happen. The scourge is going to rise in [conjunction] with this. And it's going to say these things: It's going to say, 'Hey we shouldn't lose a single person. A single death is unacceptable.' Whereas the rest of Americans say, 'Freedom. Some people will die.'" And right after that, we had the, "We have to be locked up in our homes for a million years." And what's the arguments? Because a single death is not acceptable. That's it, folks, that's it, and then what do we have? Black Lives Matter show up, and what ends up happening? We gotta wipe out all cops. Why? Because a single death is unacceptable. So we gotta get rid of your freedom. We gotta lock you all up. We gotta do all this because -- guess what? -- a single loss is not acceptable. We need to have complete control over your lives. Okay, I said this, once again, back in 2020. People said, "All this is...? Come on, you're being a little bit overzealous. This is 15 days -- 15 days to lower the curve -- you're overreacting." Well, guess what? Here we are. Right again, right on target.

Now, this is, once again, a long time in the future. This is what was being being said. I also identified this group as being an unelected group that were making these decisions -- Gadianton Robbers -- that they were also the presidents, and the leaders of the world of idolatry. i.e Hollywood. i.e Apple, Microsoft, YouTube, Facebook, etc. etc. The leaders of the idolatry world. That's who these people were going to be primarily made up of.

Well then, what was the next thing? Joseph Smith needs to be resurrected. I have some thoughts on this -- because we know Joseph Smith will return in secret, and will be working behind the scenes, and people won't know of it for a while -- I have some thoughts on this. I have some hopes. And you know my heart burns for this. We'll have to see -- we won't know about this one because it will be in secret. But the fourth one, so I didn't know when the Ensign was going to happen, because even if it did happen... I had thoughts that maybe the Ensign happened, the Ensign was the horn. I had thoughts that he had come back as early as the earthquake in which Moroni lost his horn. And I thought, "This is Joseph Smith coming back." And I felt like that, and then the conference hit and I watched one after another as the apostles stood up and gave talks. And every single one of them looked like they had seen a ghost. They all looked stunned, they looked dazed, and it didn't seem like it was a COVID thing. It seemed like they had experienced something that was even beyond what they had expected at that moment. I talked to some people about it, some missionaries, and I've talked some people about that, and I said just what I said right now and the reaction I've gotten from every member that I've explained that to was, "That's exactly what I thought. I was looking at them; they looked dazed. They looked like they were... They were talking, but their mind was somewhere far else." I felt the same way. Well, this is my belief -- I think that there's a good chance that they saw the Ensign, and wouldn't your mind be on that? That's what I think.

So then for me, I'm waiting now for the call to Washington. This is what I'm waiting for. I don't know if this is going to be President Nelson. I don't know if this is going to be Joseph Smith. But what needs to happen before this call to Washington occurs is this right here. [Micah indicates the part in #4 of the TL;DR document that speaks of the prophet warning that 3.5 years will not pass before the modern alliances are broken.] There needed to be a peace treaty. There needed to be things signed, new alliances signed, and they needed to happen between Jerusalem, the United States, and the Arab world. That's where these needed to happen, and this was what I was waiting for. Well, guess what? This has just now hit the table. This has now hit the table, as we speak. An unprecedented treaty that's been signed between the Arab world (Islam), Israel (Judaism), and the Gentiles and Christianity. [Editorial comment: For anyone who doesn't know, what Micah is talking about is the "Joint Statement of the United States, the State of Israel, and the United Arab Emirates" (the "Abraham Accords"), dated 13 August 2020.] This needed to happen so that the Prophet of God, when they came in, and they said, "Don't trust in the arm of flesh, because not three and a half years in the future will pass and these brand new alliances will be broken, scattered, and all of this wealth that you've acquired doing this will also be lost."

This just hit the table. So when people ask me what's next, as far as I'm concerned, [the pre-requisites for] four has just happened. I think that this has just happened. I was waiting for this, and you know what's so funny is I was waiting for this and people were saying, once again, "How is this going to happen? We haven't heard anything. Things are heating up, we just bombed some Iranian in Iraq - there's no way that this is going to happen." And bam! Here it is. Here's the deal being signed. Here we are folks. You didn't think that this would happen. Guess what? We're now down to four. We're proceeding according to plan.

What do I think is going to happen next? I think, within the next two conferences, you're going to see [aspects of] Celestial Law begin to be restored, and I think you are going to start to see the sealed portion of the Book of Mormon that Joseph Smith was promised to translate be translated [but won't be made public].

Now I have my scriptures sitting here, my missionary scriptures, my beautiful scriptures. One of my most prized possessions are my scriptures - most prized possessions. I'll just take you real quick - I didn't actually use these scriptures [because] my Joseph Smith to return video was already an hour and ten minutes, an hour and a half. I didn't actually use this in my evidences to support Joseph Smith coming back, but this is another evidence that Joseph Smith needs to come back, and that's in 2 Nephi 27. We're familiar with this hopefully, and this is the coming forth of the Book of Mormon. If you go to [verse] 15, it talks about how the Lord,

"...shall say unto him to whom he shall deliver the book: Take these words which are not sealed and deliver them to another, that he may show them unto the learned, saying: Read this, I pray thee."

And the learned shall say: bring me the book and I will read it, and you know yadda yadda.

And verse 17:

"And the man shall say: I cannot bring the book, for it is sealed."

And then the Lord says, "Hey, you know what? I can do my own work," in verse 20, and he uses Joseph Smith to translate the Book of Mormon.

But he tells Joseph Smith in verse 21,

"Touch not the things which are sealed, for I will bring them forth in mine own due time; for I will show unto the children of men that I am able to do mine own work."

Which I think is a beautiful line from the Savior, and then He says...(I'm going to turn the page here.) So what do we have here after Joseph Smith is done translating it? After he has done this, it says after you've done this (verse 22):

"...then shalt thou seal up the book again, and hide it up unto me, that I may preserve the words which thou hast not read, until I shall see fit in mine own wisdom to reveal all things unto the children of men."

There's what I'm looking for verse 22. So what do we have here? Joseph Smith gets the Book of Mormon, he then translates it, and then he gives it back to the angel, but then – this is really important – then the Lord says, "Hey, I'm a God of miracles, and I'm going to show the children of men that I am the same yesterday, today, and forever, and I work according to their faith. And this is important because He's saying I was the same God that I was with Joseph Smith. I'm the same God that was with Abraham, and people in the world are going to start to forget that. And then verse 24 is the really important one:

"And again it shall come to pass that the Lord shall say unto him that shall read the words that shall be delivered him:"

Now, He doesn't make a reference point here and say that there's another individual. He doesn't say, "And it shall come to pass the Lord shall say unto another: take the book and read the words that shall be delivered." Right? The Lord says that He "shall say unto him that shall read the words that shall be delivered..." Ah, that's fascinating. So now, He's going and giving back the sealed portion to who? - the same man. And we know the first man was Joseph Smith. But did this happen? No. So in order for verse 24 to take place, in order for the sealed portion that's discussed in, I believe it's Ether chapter 4, to take place, before that can be translated, Joseph has to be back so he can have the plates actually delivered to him. And the reason why He's going to do this:

"Forasmuch as this people draw near unto me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their hearts far from me, and their fear towards me is taught by the precepts of men—"

Now, I just did a video about hearing The Father. And one of the groups that I discuss was a group of people that teach fear but only off of the precepts of men, not of getting to understand the Lord, not based off of the Gifts of the Spirit, not based off of learning to understand and listen to the Holy Ghost, the plain teaching of the Holy Ghost, but rather: "Sign up for my newsletter." "Come over here - you're just not reading these cryptic footnotes well enough, that's why you don't understand. Because we're really in the seventh seal. You just have to close one eye and squint with the other..." These people are honoring him with their lips, but their hearts are far from Him, and they're teaching fear according to the precepts of men. "Let's read this really, really intelligent Isaiah scholar, you know, and what does he say? 'A tenth of a tenth.' You know, billions and billions of people are going to get wiped out." We're teaching to fear God based off of some obscure, super-intelligent, worldly scholar who has zero keys. And because of that, because that's how we're gaining our knowledge, verse 26: "Therefore I will proceed to do to do a marvelous work." I will proceed to do the marvelous work, and the marvelous work and wonder does not begin until this time. It doesn't begin until this time, and this hasn't happened. And then He says here and in verse 27, He compares the church to the potter's clay:

"And they also say: Surely, your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay. But behold, I will show unto them, saith the Lord of Hosts, that I know all their works. For shall the work say of him that made it, he made me not? Or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, he had no understanding?"

So what's happening here is that the Lord, at this time, in installing Celestial Law and restoring this and translating the sealed portion, is going to cause the fracturing we learn about in Isaiah - that they reject the whole staff of bread the whole stay of water. They reject it, and then the carcasses begin to be torn in half. And people are going, "Holy crap! You're ripping the church in half." It's like the potter's clay. Now the potter's clay, you get this clay pot and it's just not right, you don't like it, so you put it back in the fire. You burn it up and then bring it out new. We just discussed that potter's clay in the same context in 3 Nephi. This all given again in 3 Nephi when the Savior comes, and He says, "I will proceed to do this marvelous work and a wonder." And He explains that Joseph's the one that's going to do it. Even though they kill him, I'm going to resurrect him. And He says, who can stand in that day but he that is refined in the fire, for I am like a fuller's soap. So this is that process that He's talking about here. He's going to put the pot back in the fire, burn it, and bring it back out. That pot that the Lord is talking about there is the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and He's going to put that in the fire, and He's going to burn it. And we learned in Doctrine and Covenants that that is the first place he's going to go. It will begin at My house, and I'll go forth from My house – first among those among you who have professed to know my name and have not.

That is where this begins, and the institution or the restitution of the Celestial Law is what's going to cause this. And I think in the next two conferences you're going to see a beginning of the restoration of Celestial Law, and you're going to see the sealed knowledge begin to come out. That's what I believe. I believe it's time. I believe that you're going to start to see the Celestial Law and the sealed knowledge in the next two conferences, and this is going to start the church imploding. The members of the church that, by the way, happen to be in some of our presiding presidencies, who are teaching “diversity is our strength” are going to be absolutely blindsided, and they're going to be absolutely crushed. Because when they're taking their knowledge from the precepts of men, their gender studies 101, versus Isaiah 101, they're going to be absolutely blindsided. And they're not going to be ready for this, and it will rip the church in half. That is what's coming. And what that is also referred to very commonly in the church, is the Wheat and the Tares.

I'd love to do a whole entire video on this, and how Joseph Smith described that the process by which this would happen is the mustard seed turning into the tree in which the fowls will lodge therein. And what Joseph Smith taught was that the fowls are the angels, and the angels are bringing people to lodge in the trees. And he described that the angels that will be bringing people and plucking people up and lodging them in this tree will be your ancestors. So do your temple work, people! I'd love to do a video on that. I don't know if people would be interested in that. It surprises me what people are interested in and what people aren't interested in.

But that's what happens directly after that. Now, the Wheat and the Tares will take place over the next three and a half years, over that process. During that process – two years into that process - I'm putting, you know I hate doing this, but I'm speculating the years of 2022 to 2023 as the return of the Ten Tribes, and this is when the 10 Virgins kick in. Because what ends up happening, is that people who said “screw the church” from 2020 to 2022 to 2023 because they don't like the Celestial Law, because they don't like the sealed knowledge, they begin to kind of fall back out of the church. Well, when the return of the 10 Tribes occurs, and goes to Utah, some of these people might try to be like, “Hey give me some of your oil. Give me some of this food storage. Help me come back into the program, because I understand what's coming right after this and I want to be part of it.” Well, sorry folks, you lose that opportunity.

So the next two to three years, if this timeline plays out, will be extremely important for if you want to take part in the Redemption of Zion, or if you want to take part in the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, because if you fall out early you will be found to be an unwise servant.

So then we have the return of the 10 tribes occurring somewhere between 2022/2023. We have the Redemption of Zion. I believe this would occur sometime after that. The 10 Tribes will most likely return to Utah, because I can't think of a better place that describes the “everlasting hills that are in the desert.” I can't think of a better description of Salt Lake Valley than “deserts with some hills and mountains,” so I think that's where they're going first. We know the Redemption of Zion comes from Utah towards Jackson County. By the way, if Joseph Smith has returned at this point, you might start to have some major plagues start occurring at this time. The Redemption of Zion, this is when the pillar of fire occurs, this is when all that wonderful thing starts happening, and they march back towards Jackson County. I believe that people will be walking into Jackson County 2024. I believe that there are some astrological signs that coincide with some cool things occurring in 2024.

[I mixed up these last two points, the redemption of Zion occurs then two years later the ten tribes return.]

I think the Days of Tribulation start to climax, and I think that's your last three and a half years. This occurs because you have the Days of Tribulation about seven years, and I think that they started sometime 2020/2021 is when these officially are going to start/kick in. So the Day of Tribulation will end 2027(ish), let's say. We'll see. I think the Days of Tribulation have really started with COVID.

What we know about the Days of Tribulation, when they start, is we know that they mostly affect the poor, the widow, and the downtrodden first. (So the other people don't seem to think we've hit the Days of Tribulation quite yet.) And that the people – the scourge and the Assyrian – some of the things they do, is they enact laws that crush the poor, the widow, and the downtrodden first. It crushes them. And if you know anything about what's happened with COVID and the laws, it has absolutely, utterly crushed the poor in America, absolutely crushed them. Where the middle class and rich, it's like nothing's happened. Some of these professions, they can keep working. We have people that are deemed essential and unessential. Well, that's how this is happening. So a lot of people might not think the Days of Tribulation have started quite yet, but I think that they could have, because the first people to feel them are the widows, are the fatherless, are the poor, are those people that are in the most need. And this is the time period that then justifies the Lord's wrath on the people that are of the middle class and the rich, because they did not care about the poor. They have not called out to them. They haven't said, "Hey, do you have food? Are you taken care of?" They haven't reached out and done this. So you know, if you're one of those people that's in one of those positions that can help people, you might want to be doing that right now. Because that's our job – to help people.

So anyway, the Days of Tribulation climax, and this we learn is that the Assyrian – the yoke, the burden of the Assyrian, or the wrath of the dragon – as the New Jerusalem is built, the Assyrian's influence of power will get even to the neck. So it's trying to take down New Jerusalem. But it can't. And after the anointing, which takes place after that – which does open the seventh seal – so I know that's going to upset some people, but you know truth is truth.

You can read those scriptures in Doctrine and Covenants. You can read those scriptures in Revelation. When the seventh seal is opened, the Sign of the Son of Man appears, and then there is silence in heaven for the space of half an hour, and then the Great and Dreadful Day occurs. So we know that the Sign of the Son of Man has to appear directly before, or in conjunction with, the opening of the seventh seal, because those scriptures are literally overlaying on top of each other. The anointing takes place, and then the Lord goes on the offensive.

This is when the plagues, this is when the wrath of the Lord, this is when the plagues and all those things get poured out. Now, the anointing that turns things around, either occurs near the end of the tribulation, or at the end of the tribulation. So I'm putting this somewhere around 2025 to 2027. That's where I'm putting this. There's a lot of revelation, older revelation, that points to a 13-[month] civil war once the Lord goes on offensive. That 13-month civil war could be the end of the seven years of tribulation, or the seven years of tribulation could end once the war starts [people get the 13 months from the mirror principle, the civil war will happen but it isn't definitely 13 months]. Because once the Lord goes on offense we could all just be winning. So it could float around there. But I like the anointing and the opening of the seventh seal occurring around that time because it aligns perfectly then with the time of the Jews, which I'll get to later.

So then we have the wrath of Lord, plagues and things are poured out, we know that this is when the 144,000 get sent out to try to bring the rest of the stakes of Zion that are left into the program of the Celestial Law. That is the law, which is now proceeding to go forth from New Jerusalem. These are the hunters of men. Not every member of the church will be this. This is a priesthood office, so people who say that there will be women that will be part of the 144,000 apparently don't know how the church works. They will have wives, but this is like a mission president. You're going to have a wife, but they're not going to hold the calling. The 144,000 are High Priests. It says they're ordained High Priests, so they will have the priesthood, and they will be sent out as hunters of men at this day. They don't represent everyone that's saved, they just represent the missionary force that's going out and bringing people into the Church of the Firstborn. The Church of the Firstborn is what you definitely want to be a member of. The Church of the Firstborn is "you're good to go, man, you're going to make it." You don't have to be a member of the 144,000, you just can be a member of the Church of the Firstborn. Get your life in order, and see the Lord in the flesh.

The next thing that happens, because of this is that everything starts being preached. The Jews, the Gentiles, we stop preaching to them, probably because of war that's being poured out in that country. I would assume that that would take place from anywhere from 2025 all the way up to 2033, is when this is taking place. The Battle of Armageddon, I have taking place at 2033. That's when I have this taking place – 2000 years exactly after the Savior. I believe that the two missionaries who go over and call down plagues and do that stuff for three and a half years, I believe it will mirror the Savior's ministry two thousand years ago. So I believe it will take place from 2030 to 2033. It will mirror exactly. I believe the Savior will step foot on the Mount of Olives during the Passover of 2033, the same time that he died 2000 years ago. We'll have the Battle of Armageddon at that time, and then old Jerusalem will be rebuilt. They say that it'll take seven years, that they'll be able to live off the spoils. And we'll know that the Great and Dreadful Day will be 21. So they'll be rebuilding in Jerusalem.

There will actually be a meeting that takes place when the two world capitals, of the law going forth from New Jerusalem and the word of Lord going forth from old Jerusalem. Where they say "Mount Zion" and "Jerusalem" sometimes that can get confusing to people. Mount Zion is the New Jerusalem. Old Jerusalem will, at that point just become Jerusalem and that will happen at that time. After that earthquake that occurs at the Mount of Olives, the continents will become one. The water of the Dead Sea will be made whole. That will happen at that time, I believe at 2033.

And then there will be a long period of time after that that will allow the Jews time to do the temple work, to do baptisms for the dead, to get everything in order, because they need to have all their temple work done then. Because as soon as the resurrection occurs, nobody else will be able to be take part in the Great and Dreadful Day, because you can't be given in marriage you can't be taken in marriage. You can't have any work done for you once you've been resurrected. So if you are a celestial spirit that just didn't get the work done for you, you have to get the work done for you before you can be resurrected. So that's why they need the time to rebuild Jerusalem and do this. And then you'll have the Great and Dreadful Day, which will occur about the space of half an hour after the opening of the seventh seal. So whatever you say the opening of the seventh seal is – say the opening of the seven seal is around 2025 to 2028, the Great and Dreadful Day will be 2045 to 2050.

A lot of people get upset about that because they say, "I want to live to see that. I'll be dead by then." Well, here's the deal, folks. When the New Jerusalem is built – and the Lord visits New Jerusalem (so the anointing), when this takes place, (steps 10 to 11) – if you're there, and if you're part of the program, and you're brought into the program, you will be brought into the translation program, as well. And so translations will start occurring at this time, not later. So you will live to see everything. This is the event that you really want to live to see. People keep thinking that it's the Great and Dreadful Day, but it's actually this event. This is the event that you want to live to see, and be worthy of, because once you see this you will be translated. And you'll be good to go. So I hope that's interesting. I hope that, more important than interesting, I hope it gives you faith. And I hope that it gets you to wake up and be a better person.

I don't do any of these videos, I don't do any of this stuff, for the praise of men, for money, for any of that, for likes, for subscribes. I do this so that people can feel hope in their heart; can wake up, repent a little bit more, get a little bit better. And hopefully I can help somebody in the time that we have left. That's what I want. I want to lift somebody up. I don't want to say, "Ha ha, I'm going to make it, and you're not going to make it." I don't want to say, "Oh hey, you know what, it doesn't matter what we do, we're all going to make it." The true nature of God is in the middle. We're going to make it, if we do all that we can do.

And I hope that, in a small way over the internet, I can reach out and touch you. And that you can feel the Spirit and it will awaken you to try to want to get better, to get stronger, to have more faith in the Lord, and prepare for these events that are coming. But, once again, this is all speculation with the dates. I know all of these things are going to happen. I'm speculating on the dates, but so far, one, two, three (which I think happened), and four, has happened like clockwork. So we have the next two conferences, and if the Celestial Law and the sealed knowledge starts pouring out in the next two conferences, I think that you can very well say that we are absolutely on this point. President Nelson said we have hit the hinge point in 2020. I believe this is what he was referring to. He knew that (one, two, three) this was all what was going to happen, and it started. So get your life in order while you can. Grab the hand of the Lord while you can. He loves you and He wants you to be His. You just need to make the effort.

I share that with you in Jesus' name.